about us

At Namomica Laminates, we believe surfaces are more than just functional. They are a canvas for design, innovation and lasting impressions. Combining advanced manufacturing technology with an eye for timeless aesthetics, we create laminates that blend style, durability and performance. Our product range caters to the needs of architects, interior designers and furniture manufacturers.

We offer finishes and textures that inspire creativity while meeting the highest quality standards. Every sheet is crafted with precision using processes that ensure resistance to wear, moisture and everyday challenges. This makes our laminates a trusted choice for residential, commercial and institutional projects. Driven by a passion for excellence, Namomica Laminates is committed to innovation, sustainability and customer satisfaction. We continuously explore new textures, colours and applications so our customers have access to trend-forward designs backed by reliable performance. With Namomica, every surface tells a story of craftsmanship, quality and contemporary design.
